POWELL'S BALM OF ANISEED, for Coughs, Colds, Shortness of Breath, Asthma, &c.—This valuable medicine has the extraordinary property of immediately relieving Coughs, Colds, Hoarseness, difficulty of Breathing, and Hiccups in the Throat. It operates by dissolving the congealed Phlegm, consequently causing a free expectoration.

Those who are troubled with that unpleasant tickling in the throat, which deprives them of rest night after night, by the incessant cough which it provokes, will, by taking one dose, find immediate relief; and one bottle in most cases will effect a cure.

Price 25 cents per bottle.

TO THE AFFLICTED!
HAMPTON'S VEGETABLE TINCTURE FOR THE CURE OF CHRONIC DISEASES.—The most safe and certain remedy ever known to the world for various chronic diseases, after they have reached a state, and assumed a character, hitherto considered desperate and incurable.

Chronic Rheumatism, Scrofula, Kings Evil, attended with swellings and ulcers, sore eyes, and loss of sight, to a frightful extent, have been cured. Females pining away by reason of deranged secretions, broken calculations, and obstructed menses, (monthly courses) even when attended by spasms or fits, have been readily relieved.

Dyspepsia yields without a struggle to its mild yet powerful action upon the stomach. In Catarrh, or Cough, Rheumatism, and Fistula, it never fails to cure, as we have fully proved. All diseases having their origin in an impure state of the blood and fluids, will be speedily and effectually removed by this invaluable medicine.

This tincture tends directly to excite a healthy action in the stomach, liver, lungs, and kidneys, to purify the blood and other fluids, by expelling every particle of morbid matter from the system, and therefore never fails to prove a valuable remedy for the diseases which calomel has been invariably used. Old sores and ulcers, or any chronic affection; and for the calomel disease, it is an infallible remedy.

This remedy is perfectly vegetable, mild, agreeable, and safe for persons of any age, either sex, or any condition, acknowledged by those who have tried it, to be the best known family medicine.

The justly celebrated tincture creates a craving appetite, and the patient is left at liberty to indulge it. The use of this medicine will change the complexion from a pallid to a fine blooming one. After using this tincture for six weeks, a person of any age may eat anything that a child of ten years of age, in full health, could eat, without the least inconvenience.

Dr. Hampton is in possession of certificates from the Hon. Henry Clay, Col. Richard M. Johnson, Hon. John B. Dawson, of La., and many others, who have been benefited by the use of this tincture.

For certificates, &c., see pamphlet.

REMEMBER! Hampton's Vegetable Tincture can be had only at the Segar Store of

H. G. RITTER,
Pennsylvania avenue, between 11th and 12th streets, and at
A. G. GARDNER'S
Seed Store, F street, between 9th and 10th streets, opposite the Catholic church.

Each bottle has the proprietor's signature on the label. may 8-6m

THE TRUTH SOMETIMES NOT FOUND OUT UNTIL TOO LATE.

SUCH is often the case in regard to persons taking medicine. They are induced by plausible reasoning, false representation and doctrines, to employ medicines that, so far from being adapted to their disease or sickness, absolutely increase the symptoms, destroy the constitution, rack the whole system, and bring on a gradual decline, terminating in death; previous to the fatal termination, however, (but unfortunately too late), the truth is found out that the pills, mixtures, &c. they have been taking were composed of the most powerful and dangerous ingredients, prepared too by persons knowing nothing of disease or the nature of the medicines they recommended, depending altogether upon the "general doctrine of such impostors," that their medicines will "kill or cure." Be advised, then, if you find it necessary to take some medicine for purifying the blood and cleansing the bowels, to take nothing but Dr. Leidy's justly and deservedly celebrated SASSAPARILLA BLOOD PILLS, the only pills containing Sarsaparilla in their composition—the safest and best as well as the most efficacious that can be taken.

Old and young, at all times, without regard to weather, may take them without fear of taking cold, and without restraint from occupation or usual course of living. Upwards of 1,000 certificates have been published, various times, of their efficacy. More than 100,000 boxes have been sold in Philadelphia in twelve months. These facts go to prove their value, or so many never would be sold in so short a time, in a place where they are manufactured; this, however, arises in part from the fact that the manufacturer of them (Dr. Leidy) is well known at home as a regular physician and apothecary, knowing the true nature of diseases and of the medicines he recommends, attested by the most celebrated physicians, among whom are Dr. Nathaniel Chapman, Dr. Wm. Gibson, Dr. W. E. Horner, Dr. Samuel Jackson, Dr. Robert Hare, Dr. P. S. Physic, Dr. T. C. James, Dr. W. P. Dewees, Dr. J. Redman Coxe, Rev. W. H. Delancy, Robert Adrian, L.L.D., &c. &c.

Orders for Dr. Leidy's BLOOD PILLS are daily received from the North, South, East, and West, and the most flattering accounts, from every direction, of their unparalleled success. A single box (25 cents) may save as many dollars, if taken in time, instead of the dangerous medicines now forced on the public, and by taking which persons so often find it necessary at last to take Dr. Leidy's Blood Pills, to counteract their injurious consequences.

They are prepared only, and sold Wholesale and Retail, at Dr. Leidy's Health Emporium, No. 191, North Second street, below Vine street, Philadelphia.

MISCELLANEOUS.

From the Mobile Advertiser.

To the Hon. WINTER W. PAYNE, member of the House of Representatives from the 4th district in Alabama, who recently introduced one of the songs of the Clay Minstrel into one of his Congressional speeches upon politics in general, and nothing in particular—a speech (like all his speeches) "thrillingly eloquent," and "classically beautiful."

I'm glad to hear, dear Winter Payne,
There's music in your soul—
Oh! when you sing Whig songs again,
I pray you, sing the whole.
There's music in them, one and all,
To make the cheerful gay,
Inspire the rolling of the ball—
"Huzza for Harry Clay."

North Alabama might not be
Disposed to hear you sing,
But in the South we'd join with glee,
And think it just the thing:
Would help you sing "that same old Coon,"
To give your voice full play,
And cheer you in each merry tune—
"Huzza for Harry Clay."

Your politics are farcical,
But to your "school belongs;"
Your speeches all are "classical,"
More classical your songs.

In those you make in Congress Hall,
Pray introduce each day
The rolling of the famous ball—
"Huzza for Harry Clay."

By doing so you do less harm
Than by your legislation,
For those Whig songs have power to charm,
Regenerate the nation:
They please the ear, refresh the eye,
Embellish all you say,
And breathe an inspiration high—
"Huzza for Harry Clay."

Ho! "Winter," ho! Now comes the Spring,
Smiling o'er all the plain;
The Democrats essay to sing,
And try it through their pain.
In Congress, or in Tammy Hall,
Sing how or what they may,
Their Payne still feels the rolling ball—
"Huzza for Harry Clay."

Your "Petite" friend from Illinois,
Antagonist to prayer—
Your namesake Tom might claim the boy,
As worthy of his care—
Great Winter Payne! reform the lad—
Teach him to sing and pray;
If Loco music can't be had,
"Huzza for Harry Clay."

Great gratitude we owe to thee,
Dear legislator Payne!
Thy efforts shall be remembered be
In our sublimest strain;
We hail thee, earliest child of song,
Immortal in our lay,
As best amid the Loco throng—
"Huzza for Harry Clay."

SOUTH ALABAMA.

A LONDON CHARACTER.

By his side was a gentleman about his own age, very negligent in his dress, and whose countenance betrayed more irregular debauchery than the doctor's. His face was indeed, rather bloated; of that slightly humid character which is seen to much disadvantage in a clear light. This person styled himself Pontius Burton, A. M., and, strange as it may appear, was a first-classman of Oxford, but had turned his attainments and talents to such poor account that he had now to support himself by correcting the press for reprints of Greek school books, and by indiscriminate writing for the newspapers. He was well known to the editors of the leading journals as one of the most useful men on the press, for he could report speeches when he could hardly read himself; could write almost on any subject, and certainly on any side of the question; sometimes with much logical force and intellectual vigor, and always with considerable ease and wit; for in politics Mr. Burton was a sort of Dugald Dalgetty, to whom all services were alike, the only subject upon which his own opinions were at all fixed being imprisonment for debt. And so Mr. Burton rubbed through life in a threadbare coat, having, it must needs be told, no happiness, no friends, no stimulus to exertion, but what the parlor of Lord Burleigh afforded. He was well known, he was almost respected there. In the street he was a miserable man, a ducker from the daylight into blind alleys, an object of pity or contempt. Yet his countenance, with all its drawbacks, had the composed look of intellect and education, and an attentive observer, who had seen him walking along the crowded pavement, unconscious, as it seemed, of his sadly worn apparel and public-house guise, could have detected nothing of shrinking abasement in his undisturbed, self-reposing glance—nothing in his aspect that might be read, "My distresses make me thus," but something that almost seemed to say, "It is my pleasure to be so." If it were so, it was a very melancholy one.—The Gravedigger.

THE WAGES OF PARISIAN WORKMEN.

The wages of workmen in Paris are lower than in London. The class of laborers to whom my observations hitherto have chiefly referred—namely, stonemasons, paviors, hodmen, &c.—do not earn, even in the finest weather, and longest days, more than from two francs and a half to three francs and a half, or from two shillings and a penny to two shillings and eleven pence per day. The wages of mechanics and artisans are a little better, though in different trades the amount of earnings varies considerably. Carpenters average four francs a day; upholsterers from three to four francs; hatters from four to five francs; tailors from three to five francs, according to the nature of the work and the abilities of the workmen; watchmakers earn from three to five francs, or from half a crown to four and two pence, and jewellers the same. Those workmen who receive the best wages are marble-cutters and stone-cutters, their daily earnings averaging from five to six francs, or from four and two pence to five shillings. Next to them are the printers, whose wages average from four to five francs. The worst paid workmen in Paris are the shoemakers. Their wages vary from two francs to two and a half francs per day, or from ten shillings to twelve and six pence per week. They are, in fact, no better paid for their labor than the hodmen who work at new buildings, or the paviors who toil in the streets. The exceeding lowness of the wages which the shoemakers receive in Paris, and, indeed, in all parts of France, accounts for the great cheapness of French boots and shoes, as compared with those which are made in England. Boots as good as those which there cost twenty-eight or thirty shillings can be procured in Paris for fourteen or fifteen shillings. And yet, low as is the rate of wages in Paris compared with that our operatives receive in London, the working classes in that city may live more comfortably on their earnings, provided they are economical, than the same classes can on their wages in London.—Paris and its people.
